INCOMPAS to Host The 2018 INCOMPAS Show in Las Vegas

Annual Event Rescheduled to October 29-31 at ARIA Resort & Casino

WASHINGTON, D.C. – INCOMPAS, the internet and competitive networks association, today announced that it will host The 2018 INCOMPAS Show at the ARIA Resort & Casino in Las Vegas, Monday, October 29 through Wednesday, October 31.

"We are excited to return to Las Vegas and bring The INCOMPAS Show back to the ARIA Resort," said INCOMPAS CEO Chip Pickering. "Las Vegas has historically been one of our best performing destinations, and with recent upgrades to both its convention space and guest rooms, the ARIA is an ideal destination for The 2018 INCOMPAS Show. We look forward to bringing together our cutting-edge network, service and content providers with prospective business partners and vendors as we meet in Las Vegas this October."

The 2018 INCOMPAS Show is being relocated from its previously scheduled venue in San Francisco because of renovations that will impact public areas of that facility.

In Las Vegas, The INCOMPAS Show will continue to deliver the same valuable benefits to members, exhibitors, sponsors and attendees alike. With its streamlined format, dynamic exhibit hall and a central gathering place, The INCOMPAS Show is optimized to make the most of your valuable time, facilitating meaningful exchanges that lead to business deals and pipeline building. Attendees will have access to multiple networking opportunities in both formal and social settings, industry-relevant educational sessions and the popular INCOMPAS Show Buyers Forum, which offers a targeted opportunity for buyers and sellers to connect.
