

For Immediate Release

INCOMPAS Statement on Jessica Rosenworcel FCC Nomination

WASHINGTON DC (June 14, 2017) –President Donald Trump has nominated Jessica Rosenworcel to serve on the Federal Communications Commission. INCOMPAS, the internet and competitive networks association, welcomed the news and released the following statement:

The following statement can be attributed to Chip Pickering, CEO of INCOMPAS:

“Congratulations to Jessica Rosenworcel on her nomination to the FCC. Jessica is a dedicated champion for schools, public safety and competition policy who has helped bring consumers and families more choices and better prices.

“Jessica is a gifted policy maker, steeped in substance, and firmly focused on a forward vision to preserve a free and open internet, and build a better broadband future for all Americans.

“We look forward to working with Jessica toward policy goals that bring more competition, and more opportunity for students, start-ups, streamers and dreamers.”

###

About INCOMPAS:

INCOMPAS, the Internet and competitive networks association, is the leading trade group advocating for competition policy across all networks. INCOMPAS represents Internet, streaming, communications and technology companies large and small, advocating for laws and policies that promote competition, innovation and economic development. Learn more at www.incompas.org or follow us on Twitter: @INCOMPAS @ChipPickering