

INCOMPAS Statement on Senator Capito (R-WV) Rural Broadband Bill

WASHINGTON DC (May 2, 2017) – Today, U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV), announced a new effort to expand and improve broadband in rural America.

In response, Chip Pickering, CEO of INCOMPAS, released the following statement of support:

“For rural and low-income communities to be able to take advantage of the broadband economy we need new networks in new places. We thank Senator Capito for her leadership, and look forward to working with her to help bring faster speeds and more choices to families and small businesses across America.”

###

About INCOMPAS:

INCOMPAS, the Internet and competitive networks association, is the leading trade group advocating for competition policy across all networks. INCOMPAS represents Internet, streaming, communications and technology companies large and small, advocating for laws and policies that promote competition, innovation and economic development. Learn more at www.incompas.org or follow us on Twitter: @INCOMPAS @ChipPickering