INCOMPAS Brings 2019 Show to Louisville, Kentucky

Convenient Downtown Location at New Omni Louisville Hotel and Vibrant Social Scene Offers Unique Meeting and Trade Show Destination

WASHINGTON, D.C. and LAS VEGAS – INCOMPAS, the internet and competitive networks association, announced today that The 2019 INCOMPAS Show will take place November 4-6, 2019, at the Omni Louisville Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky.

“Louisville is an up-and-coming meeting destination in the heartland of America, and is reflective of the type of markets that our members seek to serve with competitive networks and innovative services,” said INCOMPAS CEO Chip Pickering. “With a vibrant social and culinary scene, state-of-the-art meeting facilities, and convenient access to transportation, Louisville offers the ideal setting for our 2019 show.”

Louisville is an easy drive from many popular East Coast and Midwest cities, and a quick and cost-effective flight from many other large cities around the country. The convenience has encouraged five of the Top 25 tradeshows in the U.S. to hold their annual events in the city. The 2019 INCOMPAS Show host hotel – the Omni Louisville Hotel – is a luxury facility located only seven miles from the Louisville International Airport. In the heart of downtown, the Omni offers newly constructed meeting facilities and a variety of onsite dining options.

After a day of networking and deal making, 2019 INCOMPAS Show attendees will be able to take in the city’s culture, walk down Main Street or take free public transportation throughout the city. While exploring Louisville, attendees will be able to enjoy Louisville’s bourbon culture at many popular distilleries. Come early or stay late to traverse the famous Kentucky Bourbon Trail, and visit the nearby Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory and Churchill Downs horse racing track. Join INCOMPAS at this bucket-list destination to experience the spirit of the city while taking in all the benefits The INCOMPAS Show has to offer.

More information will be available on The INCOMPAS Show website, show.incompas.org. To exhibit or sponsor in 2019, email Sam Edidin at sedin@incompas.org.
