FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 16, 2012

MEDIA CONTACT
Gail Norris
202-296-6650
gnorris@comptel.org

COMPTEL Commends Congressional Leaders for Encouraging FCC to Address Special Access Expeditiously

WASHINGTON, D.C. – COMPTEL, the leading trade association for the competitive communications industry, applauded a letter sent by Reps. Anna G. Eshoo, Henry A. Waxman, Edwards J. Markey, Mike Doyle and Doris O. Matsui asking the Federal Communications Commission to move quickly in the special access rulemaking.

The following statement can be attributed to Jerry James, CEO of COMPTEL:

“We appreciate the continued leadership exhibited by Members of Congress with regard to special access. We are pleased that they are encouraging the FCC to move forward quickly on this critical issue, which has a significant financial impact on competitive communications providers and the businesses that use their services.”

*****

About COMPTEL
Based in Washington, D.C., COMPTEL is the leading industry association representing competitive communications service providers and their supplier partners. COMPTEL members are entrepreneurial companies driving technological innovation and creating economic growth through competitive voice, video, and data offerings and the development and deployment of next-generation, IP-based networks and services. COMPTEL advances its members’ interests through trade shows, networking, education, and policy advocacy before Congress, the Federal Communications Commission and the courts. COMPTEL works to ensure that competitive communications providers can continue to offer lower prices, better service, and greater innovation to consumers. For more information, visit www.comptel.org.