

For Immediate Release

INCOMPAS Congratulates Geoffrey Starks on Upcoming FCC Nomination

WASHINGTON, D.C. (June 4, 2018) – Geoffrey Starks has been announced as the soon-to-be nominee for the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) seat recently vacated by Commissioner Mignon Clyburn.

Chip Pickering, CEO of INCOMPAS, released the following statement in response:

“INCOMPAS congratulates Geoffrey Starks on his impending nomination to the FCC. His distinguished career shows a dedication to public service that will be an asset to the Commission. We look forward to working with him to ensure competition remains the driving force behind innovative policy that brings consumer benefits.”

About INCOMPAS:

INCOMPAS, the internet and competitive networks association, is the leading trade group advocating for competition policy across all networks. INCOMPAS represents Internet, streaming, communications and technology companies large and small, advocating for laws and policies that promote competition, innovation and economic development. Learn more at www.incompas.org or follow us on Twitter: @INCOMPAS @ChipPickering