COMPTEL Concludes Successful Fall Show

Advance Exhibit Sales Strong for 2010 Events

ORLANDO – COMPTEL, the leading trade association for the competitive telecommunications industry, today wrapped up its COMPTEL PLUS Fall 2009 Convention & EXPO in Orlando, bringing together about 1,800 attendees and 115 exhibitors for valuable business opportunities, networking and education on trends impacting the industry.

"COMPTEL continued its two-decade long tradition of hosting events that attract top executives and key decisionmakers in the competitive telecommunications industry," said Jerry James, COMPTEL's CEO. "While this Fall's show's attendance was slightly impacted by the stagnant economy, the show floor was abuzz with new business opportunities and our attendees reported making high-quality leads that are vital to their continued success."

The COMPTEL PLUS Fall show featured a number of highlights, including a keynote address by Dan Hesse, CEO of Sprint Nextel, and educational sessions and workshop on business issues, technology trends and regulatory activities – including broadband stimulus funding and development of a national broadband plan. Attendees also took advantage of the COMPTEL PLUS Deal Center, where they could meet with current and prospective customers.
