INCOMPAS Congratulates Ajit Pai on Being Tapped as FCC Chairman

WASHINGTON DC (Jan. 23, 2017) – President Donald Trump today nominated Ajit Pai to serve as Chairman to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

In response, Chip Pickering, CEO of INCOMPAS, the Internet and Competitive Networks Association, released the following statement:

“INCOMPAS wishes to congratulate Ajit Pai on the news that he will serve as Chairman of the FCC. This is a great honor for him and his family, and just reward for years of dedication and public service to our nation.

“As commissioner at the FCC, Ajit Pai has released a substantive plan for broadband network deployment that has the potential to empower communities around the nation. We look forward to working with him on these shared goals. INCOMPAS believes competition policy, inspired by President Ronald Reagan, is the fastest way to deploy new broadband infrastructure that is both fast and affordable.

“Whether urban or rural, the homes, office buildings and factories with more broadband competition have more connections to the future. We look forward to working with Chairman Pai toward this goal.”
