

WATCH: CEO Chip Pickering on Newsmax TV Discussing Net Neutrality

On Monday, July 12th, Incompas CEO Chip Pickering appeared on Newsmax TV with JD Hayworth to discuss net neutrality. He argues that the FCC's proposed new rules would hurt competition, raise consumer prices, and threaten freedom of speech on the web. A free and open internet, Pickering said, will lead to innovation and job growth, while also bolstering small businesses.

WATCH the segment here.

Or read about his comments here.